

Washington D.C. is where much of America's history has been made, and where the future is being created. We visit the places and study the institutions that have made America what it is, and continue to shape our nation.

Government!

Get ready to experience our American democracy in action.

- Visit Capitol Hill, feel the energy, and learn how your representatives do their jobs
- Tour the grounds of the U.S. Capitol, and walk in the footsteps of presidents and senators
- At the Supreme Court, visit the place where our Constitution is debated and interpreted by the highest court in the land

Living History!

You've studied it in the classroom, now experience history jump off the page

- Stand inches away from the U.S. Constitution, and the Declaration of Independence
- Walk the grounds of Washington's Mt. Vernon estate, and learn about his life there
- Tour the Vietnam, WWII and Korean War memorials, and talk to families and veterans about their experiences
- Stand where Martin Luther King, Jr. delivered his "I have a dream speech," and read Lincoln's words at the Lincoln Memorial

Adventure!

Experience high energy, unforgettable attractions

- At the Ford Theater, visit the site of Lincoln's assassination, and learn about his legacy in interactive displays
- Watch history being recorded, and explore great events in American History hands-on at the fabulous Newseum
- Pose for pictures with your friends in front of the White House and Washinton Memorial
- View the sparkling Hope Diamond, the Apollo command module and the Wright Brothers airplace and other national treasures at the Smithsonian Museums

Washington, D.C. - Experience It

Earth Explore History Pathways School Trips are carefully crafted to combine travel with rich learning experiences; educational opportunities that foster a better understanding and appreciation of American culture, institutions and history.

At historic Mt. Vernon, we learn how George Washington's background prepared him for the challenges of the presidency.

"This experience far exceeded our expectations. He said he learned more on the program than a whole semester at school. I highly recommend this as a wonderful life experience."

-Debbie and Brian Max, Parents

Tanner absolutely could not say enough great things about his trip! It teaches them so much about the world and allows them to travel to incredible places. Thanks so much for doing this for children.

-Dee Hudson, Parent

At the Vietnam Memorial, we trace the course of the conflict, and reflect on the impact the war had on the United States.

"Justin came home more self-sufficient, more mature, and certainly more educated. He'd love to return on future trips! It was such a positive educational and social experience of a lifetime at a young age."

-Marilee and Jeff Lindahl, Parents

Learning that goes far beyond the classroom
